Mokena Kindergarten Class Adopts Soldier

The morning kindergarten class at Carpenter Street School, taught by Mrs. John Windle, has adopted her brother as their own soldier.

He is PFC Roy L. White, B Btry., 2d BN., 4th Artillery, which is serving with the 9th Inf. Div. in Viet Nam. The class also adopted his 49 buddies.

Assisted by Mrs. Wilbur Hoogstra, the children have made stationery packets and book marks to accompany their valentines as their first surprise packet.

The valentines read: "I am proud of you. Be my Valentine."

Included in the stationery packets are pens furnished by the New Lenox State Bank and address books provided by the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

The children's parents supplied the postage and necessary fillers -- homemade cookies, candy, gum, etc. Similar packages will be sent in the future.

The project is helping to instill the children, pride for their country and particularly the men defending it.

PFC White has been in Viet Nam since last November.

Weather's Been Good

Writing this on Monday for publication Thursday makes one fearful of saying the wrong thing.

Last year at this time the communities of this area were getting their backs straightened and freeing arm and leg muscles from the kinks developed in battling the snow drifts.

Already it has become legendary and various papers and periodicals are referring to it as The Great Snow of 1967.

A few days before the snow struck the temperatures got up into the 60's and some people looked upon spring as just around the corner.

Then the weatherman pulled the string--and it was Katy-bar-the-door.

For several days now the mercury has been flitting round in the forties and fifties and top coats have been a bit on the warm side. But to say now that winter's back is broken or to furbish up garden tools or golf clubs, is asking for trouble.

There are some people who would like to see a repeat of the snow of last year but probably there are many more who are keeping their fingers crossed and hoping that the remainder of the winter will be mild and snowless.

Propose Establishment Of Frankfort Park District

Formation of a Frankfort park district which would include all of the township with the exception of the Prestwick subdivision, Lincoln Estates and that portions now with in the Mokena Park District, is reported to be under consideration.

The Frankfort SPC, which has been supporting the Frankfort program for many years, has been making a study of the advisability of forming a park district. The members are now preparing to circulate petitions requesting the circuit court to call a referendum at which residents of the proposed district will have an opportunity to vote on the proposition.

At the same time the people would vote on whether to create a park district they would also vote on candidates for park commissioners.

Improvements in the park have been made thru the efforts of the SPC, the Frankfort Village Board, the Frankfort Lions Club and the Hedges Clinic, and other organizations and individuals who have contributed time equipment and money to the program.

It was pointed out that such a method of operating the park establishes no continuity of organization and guarantees no financial stability, and limits the offering of facilities and recreational undertakings a park district could provide.

The study made by the SPC brings out these points, it was reported:

1-Provide the legal and financial means for insuring adequate park and recreation facilities for Frankfort and the surrounding area.

2-Create an environment attractive to industry and new residence.

3-Provide adequate recreational and neighborhood parks which would increase and stabilize property values.

4-Provide adequate recreations and activities under trained leadership which is one aid to combating juvenile delinquency and developing physical fitness and good citizens.

5-Allow the dedication of land for community parks now which means available open spaces may be acquired before it is too late.

The maximum take a park district could levy would be 10 cents per $100 of equalized assessed valuation, it was explained by Attorney August Santoro, who is to draft the necessary petitions. In the event recreational programs were instituted an additional levy not to exceed 5 cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation could also be levied. A park district also can issue bonds, if approved by the voters.

Once the petitions are filed in circuit court, Santoro said, it would be up to the judge that gets the case to set the date of election. Those in favor of a park district are striving to gear the program so that an election can be held this spring.

New Lenox is reported considering a similar park program.

Talk Of Green Garden As Site For Major Airport

Green Garden Township is the latest site to be suggested as an international airport to serve the metropolitan Chicago area.

A steering committee has been named to canvass the territory and ascertain the feelings of the people on the subject. No canvass has been made to date but according to people living in the Frankfort - Green Garden area who have discussed the topic the division if about 50-50.

Such sentiment, it was pointed out, is considerably different than that expressed in Homer Township some months ago when the Joliet Chamber of Commerce was plugging for location of an airport there. From the opinions expressed then at various meetings most of the Homer people were against having an airport located there.

However, the idea of establishing an airport in Green Garden is still fairly new and as time passes, it was pointed out, the subject can be expected to generate considerable discussion -- pro and con.

The suggestion of locating a big airport in Green Garden is not new but the present effort was launched by the Kankakee Chamber of Commerce. That body was host to representatives from some 50 communities to the south and southwest of Chicago at a dinner in Kankakee last Thursday night, Richard Beebe, of Lochner Associates, outlined the plan.

He said that 10,000 to 15,000 acres would be needed and according to a tentative sketch the airport would have the Frankfort - Green Garden township line as its north boundary and the Manhattan - Monee Rd. on the south. East and west it would run from I-57 to U. S. 45. There are some who say that more land would be needed than that described as this airport would be larger than O'Hare.

The south and southwest communities favoring the location of an airport in the area are taking a more practical approach than was done with Homer project. Mayor Daley was brought in to it, Beebe says that it is a sound alternative to Mayor Daley's airport-in-the-lake plan.

Len Small, president of the Kankakee Chamber of Commerce, said the Green Garden site, the Homer site, a site southwest of Naperville and north of I-55, and land east of Frankfort in the vicinity of Harlem Av. would be submitted to Mayor Daley as alternates to his lake plan.

It is generally conceded that Mayor Daley will have a lot to do with selection of a site for a major airport in the Chicago area, whatever county it might be in.

The Green Garden site, Beebe noted, is 33 miles from O'Hare, 22 miles from Midway and 26 miles from Meigs Field.

The land is flat, it was pointed out, and Beebe added that the Green Garden site would also meet another important criteria -- it would be possible, he said, to annex the airport to Chicago, via I-57 -- a condition said to be imposed by Mayor Daley.

Some of the landowners in Green Garden Township are reported in favor of the project and ready to sell -- if the price is right. Others are opposed, taking the position they don't want to move, and if someone wants to establish an airport let him go to Kankakee or Indiana or Lake Michigan.

The Joliet Chamber of Commerce is on record as endorsing the proposed Homer airport plan but Eugene Silveri, executive vice president, indicated that if it looked like the Green Garden site could get the green light it would be all right with the Joliet Chamber. What it is primarily interested in is to locate an international airport in Will County.

It was reported at the meeting in Kankakee that the Illinois Central Railroad would support the proposal to establish the airport in Green Garden. There is not a railroad in Green Garden but several, including the Illinois Central, are in neighboring areas.

It is expected there will be numerous meetings on the proposed airport, to be attended by persons living within a 15 mile radius, as the location of an airport in the area would have some kind of an effect on a large number of people and it is believed many will want to give their views.

According to the discussion the other night the runways would be in Will County and the terminals and the places where money is made would be located in Cook County and linked to Chicago by one of the longest strip annexations known to date, it was pointed out.

New Lenox Lumber Closes Mokena Yard

After 18 years in Mokena the New Lenox Lumber Co. is consolidating the Mokena branch with the main yard at New Lenox.

Closing of the Mokena yard became effective today, Feb. 1.

"We are consolidating with our main yard at New Lenox," said Glenn Vally, who has had charge of the Mokena yard since it was opened in December, 1949, "so that we may better serve the public thru a larger selection of supplies and greater buying power."

"It is our sincere hope that you will stop in or call us at our New Lenox yard and that you will allow us the pleasure of serving you in the future as we have in the past."

The New Lenox yard was established in 1927. George Vally was in charge of the New Lenox yard. Now the two brothers will divide the duties.

The firm will continue to make deliveries thruout the area and, of course, carry on with its home building service. It was expected that deliveries would be made at Mokena at least three days a week.

Employees of the Mokena yard have found other employment.

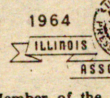

The property, which has a frontage of 100 feet on Wolf Rd. and a depth of 252 feet, is for sale. The building is adaptable to various forms of business.

Low Bid On Addition To Stagg Under $2-Million

Bids on the construction of the addition to Amos Alonzo Stagg High School were opened at District 230's school board meeting. Low bidder of eight general contractors competing was Miller - Davis Co., with a base bid of $1,872,000 and completion time estimated at 400 calendar days.

The next step is the formal letting of the contract. Generally speaking, there is some negotiation between low bidder and representatives of the board of education before a contract is signed.

"I suggest we meet with the low contractor and try to bring the project within the established budget," architect Paul McCurray said.

Supt. W. O. Fisher commented: "We were shooting at $1,700,000 with parking lot and driveways."

McCurray said that he would classify Miller - Davis as one of the finest of the contractors. "This is also true of the listed sub - contractors," the architect said. Miller - Davis is originally from Kalamazoo, Mich., and opened a Chicago branch within the last ten years. "They've done a terrific amount of work at Northern Illinois University," McCurray told the board.

Second low bidder was A. J. Haggio with a base bid of $1,895,959. Four of the other companies bid in the $1.9 million area and two others' bids were more than 2.1 million dollars.

In other business, board member Dr. Paul Erlandson suggested that a staff member who deals with federal programs accompany the superintendent to a proposed administrative conference in Washington, D. C. in March. The proposed conference will involve South Cook County Cooperative school administrators and one board member from each school. The idea is to acquaint each of the administrators on the south west side with the Health, Education and Welfare office and its officials.

The board voted to contribute part of matching funds needed for a feasibility study to see how vocational programs could be improved in and among 14 area high school districts. The study, which involves state and federal officials, will collect data from high schools, survey the needs of area industry, will ascertain if the 14 school districts can jointly operate a vocational program -- or if they should eventually join forces and establish an all-vocational high school, financed mainly with federal funds.

At the Jan. 8 board meeting, resignations effective at the end of the first semester were accepted for two physical education teachers, Mrs. Lynne Driskill, Sandburg; and Frank Esposito, Stagg. Educational leaves in 1968-69 were granted by the board to Arlen Felchner, Sandburg mathematics department chairman, and to Robert Gadt, Sandburg drivers education teacher. Both will work on advanced degrees next year.

Elementary school boards and superintendents will meet with District 230's board at a dinner meeting Feb. 5 at Stagg High. Mutual education problems will be discussed by the group.

8th Graders Taking Tests At Stagg High

Eighth graders will be taking high school placement tests today (Feb. 1) and next week, given by Amos Alonzo Stagg High School counselors.

"The student's placement in English, mathematics, and science classes is based on the tests and also on recommendations from his elementary school teachers," Miss Pauline Butler, Stagg's director of guidance said.

About 37 students from Worth School will be tested Feb. 1 and Feb. 2. Eighth graders from Conrady School will be tested Feb. 5-6. St. Patricia's School will be tested Feb. 7-8. Willow Springs School is scheduled for Feb. 10.

Palos Lutheran, Lady of the Ridge, and absentees will be tested at Stagg, Feb. 10.

Conrady anticipates the largest number of students who may be headed for Stagg High -- 205. St. Patricia's School has 42 students listed. Anticipated enrollment increase at Stagg next year will be between 100 and 150 students, Miss Butler said.

The students will be given the Science Research Associates (SRA) placement test and a science test developed by District 230's science department.

New Approach To Dog Problem At Frankfort

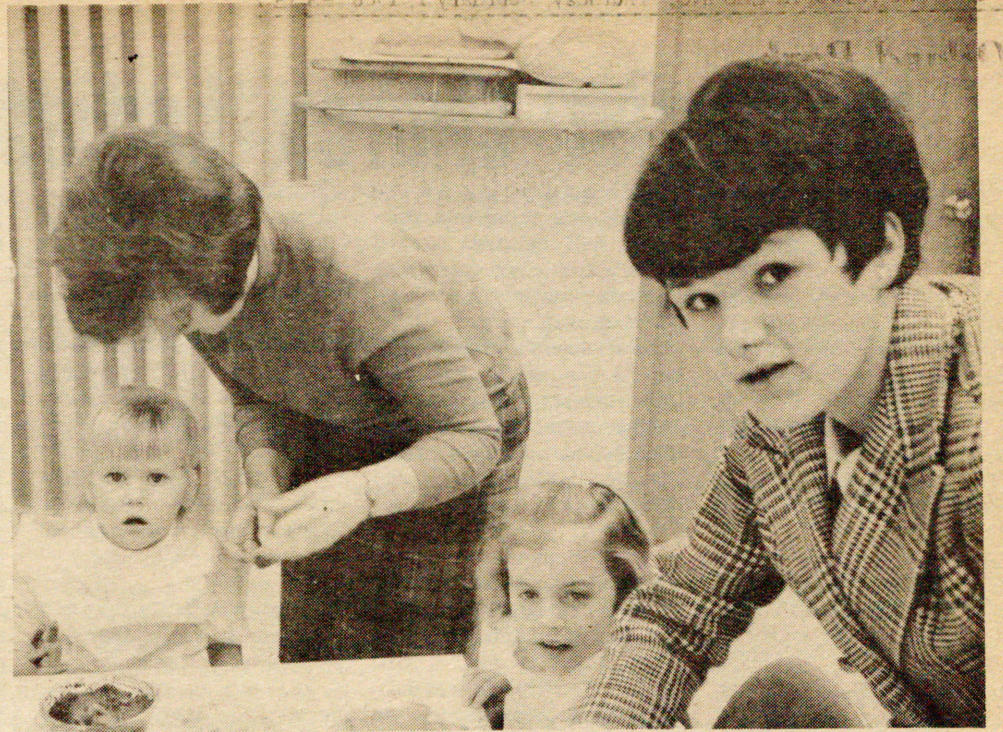

Frankfort residents who love their dogs are advised by Police Chief A. D. Massey to take care of them.

The Frankfort police department has had the loose dog problem to contend with for a long time. Effective immediately it is embarking on a course which it hopes will solve it.

In the past police have picked up straying pooches and have either taken them home or to the veterinary clinic where they could be picked up by the owners, or disposed of if not claimed.

Now police will take the roaming animals to the veterinary where the owners will pay a $3 service charge, plus the usual fees for an animal picked up and taken to the veterinary. That will be for the first offense. The service fee for a second offense, Chief Massey said, will be $5. A third time means the dog will be disposed of, he added.

STAGG HIGH SCHOOL students ran a playschool for neighborhood youngsters in order to realistically complete a unit on child development. The two tots are Terry Gauger and Lisa Flood. The two Stagg Students are Judy Blaha, left, and Doreen Bailey.

Teachers, Tots, Enjoy Playschool

Pre-school youngsters got a taste of high school life recently, and the tots enjoyed every minute of it. So did their teachers, girls in Stagg High's Home Ec IVA class, who ran a planned playschool.

The small children were sisters, brothers, and neighbors of the students in Mrs. Paul Jenkins' high school class. The playschool culminated a unit the high school girls had been studying on child care and development.

Fingerpainting and working with clay were the favorite activities of the tots. The high school girls planned the playschool schedule, made or brought from home most of the equipment, and acted as teachers for the youngsters.

The schedule included time for free play, organized games, and refreshments. The high school students proclaimed the playschool a most worthwhile and valuable experience.

Mustangs Lose To Sandburg, 71 To 54

Sandburg's varsity basketball team, which has had an in and out season to date peeled off on Evergreen Park last Friday night, downing the luckless Mustangs, 71 to 54.

The week previous the Eagles lost a heartbreaker to Bremen, 63-62 in overtime; which was quite a job inasmuch as Bremen is second in the conference standings, only one game back of Homewood-Flossmoor.

In the game against the Mustangs, Sandburg jumped into an early lead by the sharpshooting of Chuck Jaegger who dropped in 10 points in the early stages of the game. In all he had 14 points. Top scorer for the Eagles was John Sloan, with 16. Pnazeck had 12 and Taber 10.

At the end of the first quarter Sandburg led 21 to 10 and was on top 29-19 at the half. When the third frame ended the Eagles led 51 to 38 and to repeat-- the final score was 71-54.

Sandburg hit on 42 per cent of its shots from the floor and 50 per cent of its free throw attempts. In the important statistic -- "rebounds" -- Sandburg grabbed 47 as compared to 35 for the Mustangs.

Tomorrow night the Eagles will be host to Oak Lawn which has a 6-3 standing in the conference.

Gets Orland Pk. On Joey Bishop Show

Noel Smith, president of the Orland Park Chamber of Commerce, who is always looking for an opportunity to gain favorable notice for the community, managed to bring Orland Park to the attention of viewers of the Joey Bishop show on Channel 7.

On the Jan. 17 show, Andy Williams, the singer, was a guest and in the course of discussion with Bishop on golf, Williams commented that San Diego, Calif., was the nation's gold capital.

Smith fired off a telegram to Bishop which the latter read on his program the following night and spent some time discussing it.

"Dear Joey," the telegram read, "Oh the shame and humility of it all, Orland Park has 531 total holes and San Diego has only 513. Andy Williams was inadvised and certainly misinformed. Orland Park is unquestionably the 'Golf Center of the World.' Letter to follow."

In his letter Smith explained how the Orland Chamber of Commerce had developed the "Golf Center of the World" theme, based on total golf holes in a 12 1/2-mile radius of Orland Park.

A sculptor in Chicago is now in the process of making a statue -- a golf ball on a tee, which the Chamber will send to Joey Bishop as a reminder that Orland Park is the "Golf Center of the World," and if anyone says it's San Diego they had better smile.

Will Elect Six As Library Trustees

The Mokena Community Library District, which has been operating for the past year under a court appointed board of trustees will become an elected board this spring.

The election date is April 9. There are six places on the board and all six are to be elected on that date. The normal term is six years but to begin with the terms will be staggered -- two years -- , four years and six years -- so that in the future they will not all expire at the same time.

The trustees now serving are Mrs. Louis R. Richards, president; Mrs. John Hansen, secretary; Walter W. Welsch, treasurer; George E. Sangmeister, Clarence Miller and Joseph Bernardin.

Whether any or all may seek election to the board has not been announced. Candidate must be a citizen, a qualified voter, and a resident of the district, and he must file a petition bearing at least 50 signatures of voters in the district. Last day of filing is reported to be March 1.

The nominating petitions may be obtained from Mrs. Hansen, 19902 Center St., Mokena, and when they are filled out they must be filed with her.

At a recent meeting of the board, Elaine Reckemer, reported that delivery of $500 worth of reference books is expected soon. She also reported that the work of cataloging and shelving is going forward and that elementary classes from the Mokena schools have been visiting the library.

The next meeting of the board will be Feb. 20.

Social Sec. Office Reports On Medicare

In this 18 months of medicare under Social Security, 7.6 million inpatient hospital admissions, 400 thousand extended care facility admissions and 350 thousand home health care cases have been covered. About 28 million medical bills were paid. Practically all of these bills were for physicians services.

Payments for physicians services have been improved under the 1967 amendments. There are now two ways to collect the medical insurance benefits under medicare. One is to let the doctor collect the medicare payment directly from medicare. If the doctor agrees to do so, he accepts the reasonable charge as determined by the medicare carrier as his full charge.

The second way is for the person under medicare to apply for the payment. Under the old law, if the bills were not assigned, the person paid the doctor and then requested his payment. But now a person can apply even if he has not paid his bill. All he need do now is to get an itemized bill and send it in with a "Request for Payment." As be-

Mokena Man Steps Down PMA Post

Alton L. Thompson, Rt. 1, Peotone, was elected president of Pure Milk Association district 13 at the district's annual meeting at Minooka, succeeding Richard Erickson, Rt. 1, Mokena, who plans to retire from dairy farming.

Other officers elected for the year ahead were: Vice President, Wayne Mohr, Rt. 2, Sheffield; secretary-treasurer, Howard Christian, Rt. 1, Newark (succeeding Joseph A. Eich, 1502 Laraway Rd., Joliet, a 35-member of PMA, who is also retiring from dairy farming); re-districting committeeman, Stanley Peterson, Rt. 1, Seneca; resolutions committeeman, Leonard J. Bols, Rt. 2, Morris; and inter-cooperative relations committeeman, Marion Simpson, Rt. 1, LaMoille. Albert H. Krusemark, district director, Frankfort, was elected last year to a two-year term. Avery A. Vose, president of Pure Milk Association, told the 125 people present that PMA is supporting the U.S. Department of Agriculture's recommended Chicago regional Federal milk market order with two exceptions.

PMA's first exception to the recommended order is that the $5.05 per cwt. minimum producer Class I price proposed by USDA is too low. The other is that the Northwestern Indiana market order area should not be included.

Vose said it must be remembered that the dairy farmer's Class I (bottled) milk price in the recommended order is a minimum price which dealers cannot go below in paying producers. This price can be increased, he stressed, as producers enlarge their bargaining structure on the Chicago market.

Bargaining for Chicago market producers is carried on by Central Milk Sales Agency, an organization composed of Pure Milk Association, Chicago, and six other operating cooperatives from Wisconsin. PMA markets CMSA milk through the PMA Chicago market pool.

Fortunately for dairy farmers, Central Milk Sales Agency is in a strong bargaining position to improve prices through super-pool negotiations under a market order, he asserted.

Vose said inclusion of Northwestern Indiana in USDA's recommended order fails to recognize the changes in milk marketing which have shifted Indiana production out of the Chicago markets to markets to the east and south.

Vose said PMA heartily approves the department of agriculture's inclusion of filled milk as a Class I product in the Chicago regional order. PMA also approves USDA's elimination of the supply-demand adjuster, which had consistently lowered the producer Class I price by 24 cents per cwt. under the old Chicago order, and its elimination of the seasonal pricing provision which lowered the producer's Class I price during the spring months.

Vose declared that the PMA Chicago market pool will contribute to a $1 million a year fund to expand the advertising of bottled milk on the Chicago market. The program is scheduled to begin in February.

He also pointed out that Pure Milk Association and Associated Dairymen (more than 30 dairy farmer cooperatives, including PMA) are forming plans for a hearing to propose a Grade B or manufacturing milk marketing order to improve prices for Grade B producers.

Another example of what can be achieved by farmers working together is Associated Dairymen's standby pool which is opening new markets to reserve supplies of Grade A milk produced in Wisconsin and Minnesota, he pointed out.

Nineteen PMA district 13 members were awarded 35-year membership pins. Two were awarded pins for being PMA members a quarter of a century.

Production Of Cows

Lifetime milk and butterfat production levels for Registered Holstein cows in this area have been announced by Holstein-Friesian Association of America. The individual animals have been credited with career production totals exceeding 100,000 lbs of milk under official testing supervision.

Because of current replacement heifer rearing and purchase costs, cows that stay in the herd longer and achieve high lifetime production have proven to be more profitable. The Holstein Association has more than 26,800 cows on file that have attained the 50-ton production milestone.

Local Holstein breeders and their long-time producers reported by the organization include:

Osage Farms Intriger Iris 5058796 (VG), 102,640 lbs. of milk and 3,571 lbs. of butterfat in 2,350 days. She is owned by Albert H. Krusemark, Frankfort.

Daisy Revelation Star 450-0580 (GP), 101,865 lbs. of milk and 4,075 lbs. of butterfat in 2,869 days. She is owned by Roy W. Parker, Lockport.

Vikings Humble L-W Basketeers, 74-47

Those Vikings of Homewood-Flossmoor made it nine in a row last Friday night—nine victories, that is, as against no defeats.

The ninth victim was Lincoln-Way, which has been traveling a rough road this season. The loss last week leaves the Knights with five defeats and four wins.

What the Vikings can accomplish in faster company is a question that the state tournaments next month will answer but as far as the Southwest Suburban Conference is concerned the only club that has a chance to get a piece of the title is Bremen. The Braves now have a record of eight wins and one loss, after having taken Rich East last Friday, 77 to 63. The other teams are out of it unless Homewood and Bremen fall completely apart.

Getting back to the Homewood-Lincoln-Way game it was a canter for the Vikings. They won 74 to 47. John Kabbes scored 19 points, Marty McDonald, 13, and Bill Kroc, who only played half of the game, accounted for 11. Vitt, Smith and Martin each scored eight points for the Vikings and Grabo, seven.

Lincoln-Way top scorer was Harold Webb, a sophomore, with 14 points. Fredin had 11, and Loucks, seven. The McCabes were held to six points, one for Mike, and five for Pat. Palaka and Mundt had two points each; Jensen, four, Otto accounted for the other one.

It was 14 to 7 at the end of the first quarter, Homewood, and 32 to 15 at the half. Lincoln-Way roused up in the third frame to score 18 points while their visitors accounted for 20. In the final quarter Homewood made 22 points to 14 for the Knights.

New Dependency Law In Social Security

Dependents of woman workers will be interested in the 1967 changes in the social security law. Chief among them is the one that changes the conditions for determining the dependency of a child on his mother.

Under the old law, there were circumstances under which benefits could be paid to dependents or survivors of a woman worker only if she had worked under social security for 1 1/2 years of the last three years. Now this work requirement has been removed. Beginning with checks in March 1968, payments are payable to the child of a woman worker who has died, retired, or become entitled to social security disability if she has enough social security work credits (earned at any time) to be "fully insured". Several in the Joliet area have already applied for these payments.

One of these concerned children of a woman who died in January 1967. She had one child 10 years of age and another 12 years. She had not worked under social security in the past 15 years but she had worked from 1945 to 1955. Under the old law she would have had to have worked 1 1/2 years between Jan. 1, 1964 and December 1967. Therefore in January 1967, the children could not have received social security payments. However, under the new law beginning with February 1968, the children could receive monthly social security payments since their mother was "fully insured" at the time of her death. The father called at the social security office with the children's birth certificates and her social security number, and completed an application to receive the payments for them.

The changes in the law also will provide social security benefits to some widowers who were dependent on a wife at the time of the wife's death and some husbands who were dependent on a wife at the time of the wife's retirement or disability.

"If you believe that you or someone in your family may be eligible under these changes in the law, get in touch with your Social Security Office at 225 North Chicago Street, Joliet, Illinois 60434," a spokesman said.

Commodity Program Sign-Up Dates Set

Sign-up dates for farmers who wish to take part in the 1968 feed grain, and wheat programs have been announced.

All commodity program sign-ups will be held during the same period -- Feb. 5 thru March 15. Sign-up applications indicate the farmer's program intentions, including the extent of his participation in the program.

Under both the feed grain and cotton programs for 1968, farmers may earn diversion and price-support loans on their corn and grain sorghum crops; feed grain diversion payments will be available to all program participants in 1968. The wheat program provides price-support loans and marketing certificates to bring returns up to full parity on the part of the wheat crop allocated for domestic use; no diversion payment is available for wheat.

While the sign-up period for 1968 commodity programs will extend through six weeks, farmers who wish to take part in the programs are urged to file their applications as soon as they decide on 1968 production plans.

Oak Lawn Swimmers At Sandburg Today

Oak Lawn swimmers will take on Sandburg this afternoon at the Eagle pool and Saturday afternoon, Feb. 3, beginning at 2 o'clock, the Sandburg Invitational Swimming Meet will be held.

The meet this afternoon will begin at 4 o'clock.

Oak Lawn is not as formidable as usual, it was reported, for lack of preparation. The tornado last spring which ripped thru the high school there, wrecked the pool.

On Jan. 20 Walter Tempinski, of the Sandburg team, placed 11th out of 25 divers competing in the New Trier West invitational diving meet.

On Jan. 18 the Eagles beat the Evergreen Park swimmers by a score of 73-22. The Eagles now have a 2-0 conference swim record.

The 200-yard medley relay team won for Sandburg. So did individuals Jan Groenwald in the 50-free, Jim Nudd in the 100-back, and the 400-freestyle relay of Bob DeNovo, Jeff Justice, Mark Doyle, and Dan McCarthy.

Five finalists have been chosen for the Sandburg invitational queen's job. They are Barb Basic, Debbie Davidson, Cheryl Genis, Suzy O'Connor, and Chris West.

Will County Forest Preserve District Is Given More Use

Usage of the Will County Forest Preserve for 1967 was greater than the previous year, according to the annual report of John L. Jevitz, superintendent.

Five of the preserves showed a 7 per cent increase in use of five of the tracts and remaining the same in the other three. The number of individuals that made use of the forest facilities, according to the custodians, was in excess of 62,000.

There is a steady increase of Girl Scout Day camping, in the preserves, Jevitz said, but no change in the overnight Boy Scout camping. Family and other adult groups and churches, clubs, industry and other organizations have made steady use of the preserves, the report states.

Jevitz reported a fewer number of acts of vandalism in the preserves last year. There were no fires. The only injury reported to any of the users was inflicted by bees.

The forest preserve tract located in this area is known as Van Horne Woods, lying north of U. S. 30 and east of Wolf Rd., south of Mokena. There are 131.1 acres in this woods.

Jevitz reported of the erection of a new sign at the south entrance of Route 30: repair of bridge rails, the fireplace in the shelter house and a pump. Several day camps were held by Girl Scouts and there were many picnics and family outings. The attendance was given more than 7,400, an increase of about 5 per cent over the 1966 attendance. Albert Jarchow is the custodian there.

There are 1,056 acres in the forest preserve district.

Lorenz Describes Death In A Crash

The grim story of "How ing Car" was told by Fast You Can Die In A Speed-Director Francis S. Lorenz of the Illinois Department of Public Works and Buildings in a radio report from Springfield this week.

Director Lorenz gave a terrifying description, in a split second reconstruction, of what happens when a car, traveling 55 miles an hour, crashes into a solid object, such as a tree or a wall. The elapsed time since the impact was seven tenths of a second.

In the first tenth of a second; the front bumper and chrome work of the car collapsed. Slivers of steel penetrated the tree to a depth of one and one-half inches.

Two tenths of a second: The hood rose, crumpled and smashed into the windshield. Spinning rear wheels left the ground. The fenders rammed the tree, forcing the rear parts out over the front doors. The driver's body moved forward at the vehicle's original speed. At 20 times the normal force of gravity, his body weighed 3,200 pounds. His legs snapped at the knee joints.

Three tenths of a second: The driver's body, now off the seat, torso upright, broken knees pressing against the dashboard. The steering wheel begins to bend under his grip. His head is now near the sunvisor, his chest above the steering column.

Four tenths of a second: The car's front 24 inches has been demolished but the rear end is still traveling about 35 miles per hour. The driver's body is still traveling 55 miles per hour. The half-ton motor block crunches into the tree.

Five tenths of a second: The driver's fear frozen hands bend the steering wheel into an almost vertical position. He is impaled on the steering wheel by the force of gravity. Jagged steel punctures his lung and intercostal arteries. Blood spurts into his lungs.

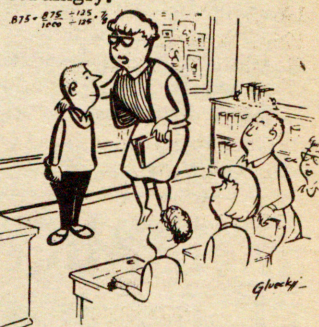

Six tenths of a second: The driver's feet are ripped from his laced shoes. The brake pedal sheers off the floor boards. The chassis of the car bends in the middle, shearing off the body bolts. The driver's head smashes into the windshield. The rear of the car begins its downward fall, spinning wheels digging into the ground.

Seven tenths of a second: The entire writhing body of the car is forced out of shape. In the car's last convulsion, the seat rams forward, pinning the driver against the steel of the steering wheel. Shock has frozen the driver's heart and he is now dead.

Director Lorenz pointed out that the outcome of the accident would have been quite different if the driver had been wearing seat belts. He emphasized, though, that we must remember that the force of an auto traveling 60 miles per hour and hitting a solid object, or of two cars each traveling 30 miles an hour and meeting head on is tremendous. It is approximately the same as if the car had been driven off the roof of a 10 story building, said the Director.

Every motorist should recognize that an auto can be a dangerous weapon in the hands of a reckless or careless driver, Director Lorenz pointed out. He added "Just because driving a car is a commonplace experience in no way lessens the dangers involved. It is my hope that our listeners will reflect upon this reconstruction of an automobile crash and adjust their driving habits accordingly."

"No—No credit for being close—you've got to be right."

Deplores Cutback In Highway Funds

Gerald W. Cavanagh, president of the Chicago Motor Club-AAA, criticized the announced cutback in allocation of $600 million in previously authorized federal highway funds, calling the action another serious setback to national highway plans. He pointed out that important Interstate road projects in Illinois will be postponed because of the cutback.

Cavanagh, a member of the policy committee of the 10-million-member American Automobile Association, cited a resolution passed by more than 1,400 AAA delegates at the motoring organization's national meeting last year. The resolution called for Congress to put an end to unilateral action on the part of the executive branch of the federal governments in withholding these vitally needed funds from the individual states.

"These periodic cutbacks in the release of previously authorized federal highway funds play havoc with any attempt to develop sound, long-range highway planning in a state," Cavanagh said. "With construction of our 41,000-mile Interstate System already running behind schedule, it does not take too much imagination to see what this further reduction in allocation of federal highway money--money which is accumulated through special motorists' taxes--will do to our national highway plans."

The Chicago Motor Club president pointed out that the money for the federal-aid highway program comes from the Highway Trust Fund, which is supported solely by federal taxes on highway users. Money in the Highway Trust Fund can be spent only for construction and improvement of federal-aid highways, he said, and the net results of the government's cutback is simply to leave the money idle in the Highway Trust Fund.

Cavanagh said that the disruption of construction planning and programming resulting from this cutback will cause all states to further delay completion of their sections of the Interstate Highway System. He added:

"This delay will have a direct effect on our efforts to save lives and increase highway safety and is particularly unfortunate in that it comes at a time when there is a growing interest in traffic

Skaters Have Lighted Rink

The lights are there-now, if the weatherman just comes up with some more cold weather Frankfort skaters will have a fine place to exercise their talents.

The tennis courts in Community Park can be and have been flooded to be transformed into an excellent ice rink. The weather has been a bit on the un-skating side the past few days but there should still be a lot of cold days that will assure further skating.

The village board and Hed-ges Clinic got together to aid the skaters by installing lights at the tennis courts. There is still some work necessary--still some more light fixtures are needed, it was said, so the illumination will meet demands for tennis next summer. As far as the skating is concerned the lights are fine.

Anyone who wants to help with completing the project, whether it be individual, industrial or business firm, may get in touch with Mayor Warning or any member of the village board.

hints for Homeowners

Another common and puzzling house plant problem is scale insects. These, as their name implies, have a hard shell-like covering that protects the body. Mite sized crawlers emerge from under the mature shells and set up residence on other parts of the plant. Here they insert their sucking stylet into the plant and absorb plant juices. At the same time the protective shell is formed.

Detection is at first difficult as the scale insect may resemble a seed, or a plant bud.

Sprays for scale insect control are poisonous therefore do not spray indoors. Dip your plants instead. Use two teaspoonfuls of Malathion 57 percent liquid concentrate to a gallon of water. Add a half teaspoonful of a detergent that is mild enough for hand use so that the chemical will penetrate easier.

New Laws Effecting Farmers

Several new state laws--such as those requiring licenses for grain dealers and safety warnings on grain bins--are of particular interest to farmers, according to John K. Cox, Illinois Agricultural Association secretary of legislation.

As of Jan. 1, 1968, any person who buys grain from a producer for resale, milling, or processing must be licensed by the Illinois Department of Agriculture. Under the new law, grain dealers must not only obtain the license but must prove financial soundness or be bonded for an amount equal to the value of the largest amount of grain to be purchased during any one-week period.

A producer buying grain for his own use--as seed or feed--is not covered by the requirements of the new law, Cox said.

Another new law that applies to Illinois grain farmers concerns safety warnings on grain bins. The legislation is an attempt to halt the growing number of accidental grain drownings inside storage facilities.

The new law requires a warning sign on the outside of all existing grain bins of 10,000 bushel capacity or larger, and on all bins of 1,000 bushels or more constructed since August 21, 1967. The wording on the signs should be as follows: "Danger. Inspect storage areas for unauthorized persons before removing grain." The law provides for a penalty of up to $50 for non-compliance.

A new law allows the use of metal studded snow tires in Illinois. Cox pointed, however, that the tires with imbedded studs may be used only from Oct. 1 thru May 1.

Other principal changes in laws affecting motor vehicles are the following:

All drivers must be re-examined at least once every nine years, effective Jan. 1, 1969.

The minimum age to qualify for a driver license is raised to 18 years, except for those applicants 16 and 17 years old who have passed an approved driver education course effective Jan. 1, 1969.

Driver licenses will be classified as to the type of vehicle the individual is qualified to operate, and motorcyclists will have to take a special examination on a motorcycle, effective Jan. 1, 1969, and renting motorcycles to anyone who does not hold the motorcycle license is prohibited, effective January 1, 1969.

Effective Jan. 1, 1968, motorcycle passengers must ride astride the vehicle on the permanent seat or saddle, and only on motorcycles designed for two people; there must be handgrips and footrests for the passenger; operators and passengers must wear protective headgear, wear glasses, goggles or have a transparent shield; handlebars must be no higher than 15 inches above the seat, and the vehicle must have a rear view mirror. Effective now is a provision that motorcyclists must not pass between two vehicles proceeding in the same direction unless there is an unobstructed traffic lane available.

The driver license fee, now $5, will be increased to $8, effective Jan. 1, 1969.

Effective now, a driver may cross the no-passing stripe on the highway to complete a passing maneuver which was started prior to the beginning of a no-passing zone.

Under the law, no person may turn a vehicle without giving an appropriate turn signal. A signal of intention to turn right or left must now be given continuously for at least 100 feet before turning within a business or residential district. Such a signal must be given continuously for at least the last 200 feet before turning outside a business or residential district.

Turn signals must be used to indicate an intention to turn, change lanes, or start from a parallel parked position. Turn signals must not be flashed on one side only on a parked or disabled vehicle, or flashed as a courtesy or "do pass" signal to operators of other vehicles approaching from the rear.

JAMES GREEN 4228 - 99th pl., Oak Lawn, a baritone, will be the soloist with the Southwest Symphony Orchestra in a concert on Saturday, Feb. 3, at 8 p.m. in the Evergreen Park High School, 99th & Kedzie.

Admission is $2 for adults, $1 for students and tickets are available at the box office. For more information call GA 2-3822.

NI-Gas Increases Its Construction Budget

A major increase in its five-year utility construction budget has been announced by Northern Illinois Gas Company.

Marvin Chandler, NI-Gas chairman and president, said that from 1968 thru 1972, construction expenditures are expected to be $250 million -- up $46 million from the $204 million forecast for the 1967-71 period.

In 1968, NI-Gas plans to spend about $45 million on utility construction, $7 million more than it did last year.

Chandler revealed the higher construction figures in his Feb. 1 quarterly report to stockholders. He attributed the projected increased expenditures to a step-up in forecasts of new household formations, additional development of underground storage fields, and construction of more mains from these fields to the company's markets.

Chandler also reported that with the addition of 31,100 customers in 1967, the NI-Gas customer family now numbers more than 975,000.

Stockholders were further informed that during 1967, nearly 12,000 households that previously used other fuels changed to gas heat, and that Total Energy -- the generation of electricity on premises with a natural gas engine or turbine -- continued to gain favor among the company's industrial and commercial customers.

New School Movies Offered By NI-Gas

Two new movies produced by Northern Illinois Gas Co. primarily for high school and junior high school students are winning high acclaim from viewers.

The 16-mm sound films are among some 40 movies available from NI-Gas for showing to schools, clubs and organizations in the area. A brochure describing these movies -- which include subjects about various phases of the gas industry, public safety, cooking, first aid, driving safety and one about professional football -- is available through the company's Public Relations Department, P. O. Box 190, Aurora, Ill. 60507.

One of the two new films, "Geology and Natural Gas", won a bronze award late in 1967 at the International Film and TV Festival of New York. This lively 15-minute, color film explains how natural gas gets into porous sandstone, how it is located, transported to market areas and stored in underground formations similar to the ones in which it is found originally.

Central character in this movie is Speedy Wheeler, a wisecracking ventriloquist's dummy. He also is the principal character in the other new film, "The Physical and Chemical Properties of Natural Gas." Speedy learns in this 11-minute film that natural gas is odorless, colorless and nontoxic.

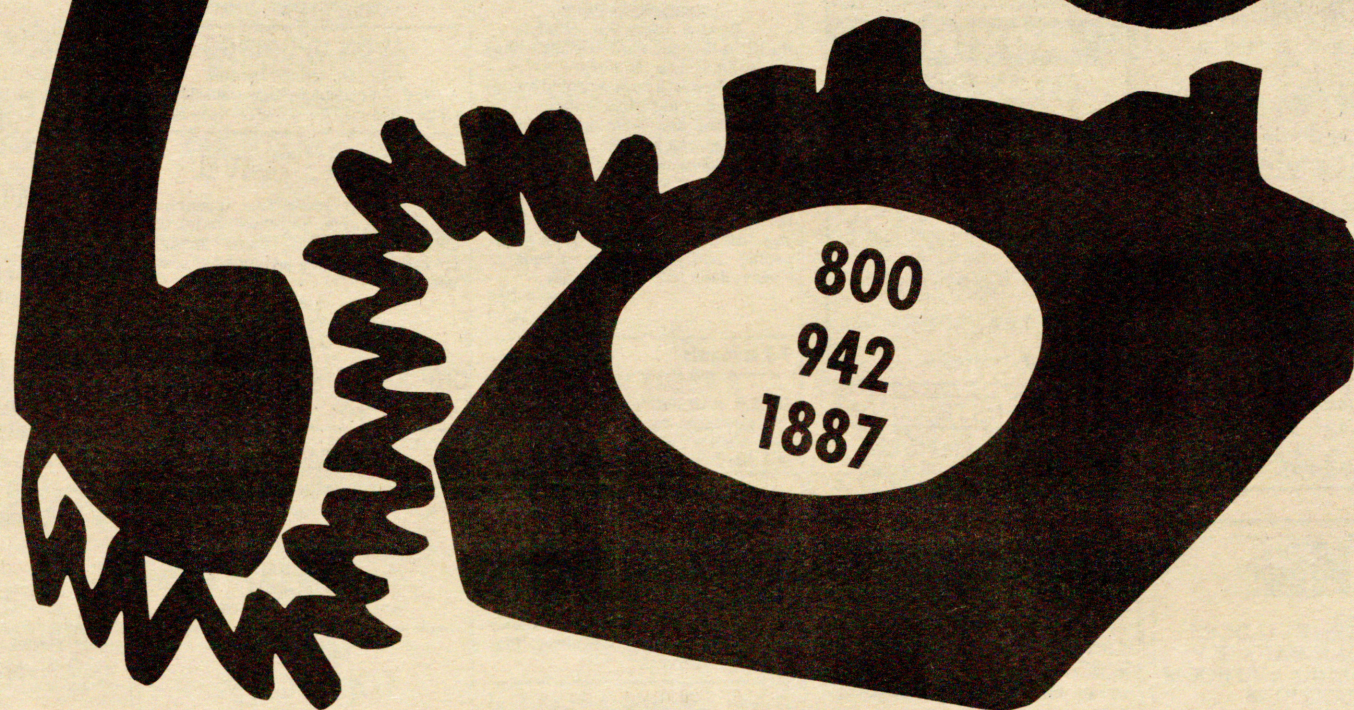

MARY LUCILLE BARTON -- Mr. and Mrs. John Barton, Orland Park, Ill., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Lucille, to John B. Larpey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Larpey of Mt. Prospect, Ill.

Mary attended Sandburg High School, Stephens College, and the University of Missouri and is presently employed as a teacher at Riverside Junior High.

John is a graduate of John Carroll University, and is employed by IBM. He also attended the Chicago Graduate School of Business.

June wedding is being planned.

CRIME CURBS—"In spite of the general interest in the problem of organized crime and attempts to do something about it, the Administration continues to take a position adamantly opposing wire-tapping and electronic eavesdropping devices. It's true I think that we need some restrictions in this area, and that it should be done only under court order, but at the same time we should recognize that this is a vital part of doing something about organized crime," states Rep.
Robert Taft, Jr., (R-Ohio).
